Individuals at their precinct caucuses can submit resolutions. When a majority of the caucus adopts a resolution, it advances to the Organizing Unit convention for consideration to send to the State Platform, Issues, and Legislative Affairs Committee. Resolutions having support from at least five Organizing Units drawn from at least two Congressional Districts may be selected for consideration at the State Convention (for inclusion in the DFL Ongoing Platform or Action Agenda).

RESOLUTION TITLE (limited to 5 words): New Protections for Senior Minnesotans

BE IT RESOLVED THAT: (Please print or attach your resolution here. Be concise and use everyday language.)

Now therefore be it resolved that the MN DFL Party will continue to be aggressive educators and advocates for retirees, elders, and vulnerable adults and their families working together to:

- Educate citizens throughout Minnesota about their new rights and protections under the new la licensing assisted living facilities;
- Monitor the implementation of the new law in rule and seek opportunities to strengthen the new Elder Care Reform Law and communicate progress or problems;
- Initiate and support positive legislation in 2020 and fight attempts to weaken current law or introduce harmful legislation

You may add a brief explanation or your two or three strongest supportive points here.

Whereas MN Health and Human Services had 150% increase in complaints about abuse, neglect or financial exploitation between 2015 and 2018;

Whereas over 22,500 abuse, neglect, and exploitation complaints went to the MN Department of Health and Human services in 2018. That is up from 4,000 reported cases in 2010;

Whereas thousands of seniors and vulnerable adults are suffering and dying without sufficient regulation and enforcement;

To be filled out at the Precinct Caucus:
