Title: Safety Net for MN Seniors

The Minnesota Democratic Farmer Labor Party will work to restore, improve and fund a viable safety net for Minnesota's elderly population that provides and supports access to health care; services to stay in their homes; and, affordable transportation, so that they may live their lives as seniors with respect and dignity.

You may add a brief explanation or your two or three strongest supportive points here.

Minnesota seniors, a rapidly growing demographic, are the largest group filing for bankruptcy and ending up homeless, often due to a costly health event.

Over 22,500 elder abuse, neglect and exploitation complaints were filed with the MN Department of Health in 2018 and;

Thousands of seniors and vulnerable adults are suffering and dying due to insufficient elderly facility regulation and enforcement.
